9. [ ] JMM) Cliff Hackett, House Foreign Affairs Committee staff, called to say that Subcommittee Chairmen Rosenthal (Europe) and Hamilton (Near East) wished briefings on the present situation in Greece. Hackett explained that it had not been decided whether these two Subcommittees would be formally convened in a joint meeting for such a briefing or if it would be conducted informally in the office of one of the Chairmen. I said that we could handle it either way provided we were assured it would be off-the-record and the appropriate security measures observed. Hackett said this was fully understood, and that he would let me know later when and how they wished to proceed.
